

DARK NIGHTS

Thessaloniki, Greece: Freedom to the Wolves of the North

Two comrades, Spyros Mandylas and Andreas Tsavdaridis, were arrested on charges of terrorism in relation to four responsibility claims for the PHOENIX PROJECT* by FAI/FRI direct action groups. Also, the Nadir squat was raided and searched by the anti-terrorist force.

On Thursday night, July 11, cops invaded the anarchist squat Nadir, stealing the squat's equipment, causing damages and arresting one comrade. At the same time, another group of uniformed thugs arrests another comrade in the area of Stavroupoli, Thessaloniki.

We will not talk about "unfair prosecutions", about "the climate of terror against those who fight", nor about the "new totalitarianism" and things like that. That's because we know that none of these is new. These are simply snapshots of the ancient war between two incompatible words: on the one side lies the disgusting world of the Authority, of the submissive crowd and of the social cesspit and on the other side, the anarchist insurgents, the insubordinate fighters of the Negative, those who do not bow down to nobody. We will neither talk about the others. The ones who these days feel secretly happy and relieved. Now it's not the time nor the place to do so. They should bear in mind, however, that the time will come to talk about these things.

We will talk about our brothers. For all those who despise the comfort of the intra-systemic political struggle and throw themselves, smiling, into the fight. For all those who take part in the anarchist war and in the continuous insurrection using all kinds of means and from different bastions.

We will talk about the comrades of the FAI/IRF network, about the ALF and ELF fighters, about the proud illegalists, about the bank robbers and also about those fighters, by whom we may be separated in terms of ideas, but with whom we find ourselves together behind the street barricades and in the battle trenches.

We will talk about love and solidarity between comrades. About the nonnegotiable and intransigent solidarity, which is forged by fire and not the humanistic whining of democrats of any colour.

For us, it doesn't really matter if our comrades, who were captured on Thursday, have done what they are accused of. Because we know that this path doesn't begin with the armed struggle nor does it end there and that it may never go there. It is a path of conscience that all of us have chosen long ago...

Contribution of 'Act for Freedom Now!' which was read out at the international counter-information & translation network event at anarchist steki Nadir, on July 3rd, 2013, in Thessaloniki, Greece

First of all we would like to thank the brothers and sisters of steki Nadir for organizing and inviting us to this timely and important event. The dynamic developed with their solidarity actions, and not only, in recent years in Salonika, despite the harsh oppressive attacks they have received from the barbaric Greek State, whether that is preventive arrests and temporary remands or imprisonments, or raids of the State dogs inside the self-organized steki Nadir as well as other occupied spaces, give us the tenacity and will to continue and with more rage. Unfortunately, it was too hard for us to be present today... but there will be strength always and we will meet again!

'The State is the only Terrorist' - About the repression in Thessaloniki

"Towards the end of this night, despondency is impermissible. I risk nothing anymore"

Paul Eluard

Every minute, every hour that passes, the historical evil represented by the State attacks a society that groans and dies slowly under its boot and in passivity.

However, fireworks of anger and resistance do not stop ripping up the generalized darkness and wild voices of fury and conscience do not stop giving birth to nightmares for the complacent and the poorer by the day population and calling for a wide front of resistance and liberation, for the necessity of the revolution.

One such outpost of resistance and of tireless work for the Negative exists for years, NADIR with its two-front irreconcilable fight against the state and the authority on one hand and on the other hand, against reformism and all kinds of capitulation by the "anarchist movement" that "dances" to the rhythm of the state agenda and at times, functions as the long arm of "Democracy".

This is the reason why the attacks from both these poles are fierce and constant and of course, instead of intimidating us, they accelerate us since we have lived and we have showed though our lives and actions that "what is special is perishing in the battlefield". Yesterday, special forces of this operetta-state, the EKAM and anti-terrorist mutts invaded once more this center of revolutionary culture and of exemplary anarchist action and kidnapped one of our comrades, while another one was snatched on his way home. Of course, their vindictive fury left nothing intact, breaking and destroying everything, even the sanitary articles!!!

We don't want to say anything more on this case which is still evolving. We have proved that we are not like the ones who "talk and profiteer in the assemblies smudging papers"...

We will continue unscathed in the ruins, smudging the grayness of the complacent consciences and defeatism with the smokes of the social battle and of our souls, and we recognize ourselves nowhere else but in this fight.

*Not a step back,
Always held high our black flags...*

The two comrades who appeared before the interrogator today 17/7 in Loukareos in Athens, are dealing with the following charges:

-Incorporation into a terrorist organization with the additional case of preparing, supplying and possession of explosive materials for the service of a terrorist organization. (This is about the CCF)

-Terrorist act of attempted homicide with intent in a calm state of mind.

-Terrorist act of explosion with intent and with the use of explosive materials from which could result and did result in common danger to private property and danger to humans and facilities of common utility and from which was caused actual bodily harm for both and repeatedly.

-Terrorist act of preparation, supply and possession of explosive materials and bombs with intent to cause danger to private property and humans for both and repeatedly .

-Terrorist act of arson from which could result common danger to private property and danger to humans, for both and repeatedly.

-Terrorist act of criminal damage to private property which was carried out with one of the means in article 270 of the penal code for both and repeatedly.

-Instigators of the last 4 acts of Phoenix Project.

Also as instigators for the 4 actions of project "Phoenix", are accused the 10 imprisoned members of the R.O. Conspiracy Cells of Fire.

On 17/7 at 10am the two arrestees appeared before the interrogator, who decided to hold them on remand. The comrades were transferred to Koridallos prisons. Outside the court rooms there was a solidarity gathering.

PHOENIX PROJECT – Part 4

"Be proud of your actions, because it is through disobedience and insurrection that a bright ray of human beauty is born! Hello anarchists of praxis! Hello brothers and sisters!"

Renzo Novatore

Some thought that we raised a white flag. Some thought we forgot our imprisoned brothers and sisters and sunk in the social swamp, next to the two-legged herd. The bosses, journalists, politicians, society and the ridiculous "anarchist" bureaucrats thought they got rid of us.

For all those, Project Phoenix is a punch in the gut. A punch in the gut because the new anarchist urban guerrilla is here and tears down the desires of all these worms to terminate our actions.

Old groups are activated and new are created, with the promise to give life to the nightmares of authority and its subjects.

Comrade G.Tsakalos has been held on remand for 32 months when the limit is 18. We do not care about the provisions of the constitution.

We do not desire the cleansing of institutions, we fight for their destruction. We know that the law is a weapon in the hand of dominance, just like we know that our ten imprisoned brothers and sisters will not be liberated with legal procedures.

We believe authority is total of values which in the core is the citizen-mass human, who lies in the muck of stagnation, where everyone forgets their name and responsibilities. But even in this disgust some have a name. One of them is Dimitris Horianopoulos. During his service as a commander of the anti-terrorist force, the operation against the R.O. CCF was carried out. Horianopoulos is nothing more than a piece of garbage of the complexity of security and the fact that he has retired does not mean that we forgot him. The same goes for the rest of the scumbags in his department. They should know that they are on the top of the target list of FAI/IRF.

We take responsibility for the sending of a parcel bomb to the scumbag mentioned above, which was, unfortunately, detected.

We dedicate our attack to the UNREPENTANT and PROUD members of the CCF, as well as all imprisoned anarchists of praxis, wherever they are. We send our LOVE and RESPECT to all anarcho-individualists, nihilists, and iconoclasts who discovered the fountain of life in the attack.

WE DO NOT BOW OUR HEADS TO NO ONE!

P.S. It was announced that the parcel was ignited after falling down in the post office. The parcel we sent was absolutely safe for anyone not a target. The mechanism activates ONLY if the envelope is opened and not if it falls or gets shaken. We do not know what happened. The only sure thing is that the package was opened.

is another weapon at our disposal.

What began as a simple desire and challenge brought us into a new field of experience and responsibility.

Now we are here, they will not get rid of us easily.

We want to create an international network of translators in order to continue the spreading of ideas and news. There's loads of work, all we need is the will. We have the ability to spread the words of imprisoned and not comrades and fighters and break the isolation imposed by each State.

No comrade is alone and this they know.

The spreading of the insurrectionalist attack and factual international solidarity of FAI/IRF continues in the heart and mind of the rebels around the world. Oppression will lead to nothing more than escalation. The attack of the State will only fuel the insurrection.

Chaos is inevitable! and anarchy is attainable!

This is why, with our actions and solidarity, we will continue with all means at our disposal to express the thoughts and desires of comrades, through letters-texts of comrades hostage in the hellholes of the Greek and global prisons, or through the spreading of actions of comrades out in the streets day and night fighting with whatever they've got for an anarchist insurrectionalist revolution.

We are another aspect of the asymmetric threat.

The war to the end has begun and the only development we could hope for is the clash, till the abolishment of laws, the destruction of authoritarian society and its relations, till the liberation of human and nature from the bonds of State and capitalism.

Clashes in the streets, clashes on the prison rooftops, clashes inside and outside the court room, clashes with our own assemblies, at an individual and collective level, with words and action.

The multiform actions of the CCF as well as many other groups and comrades from Greece and around the world have always raised our spirits and strengthened us.

Every translated word, paragraph and page expresses the rage and desire to give a flaming hug to the imprisoned comrades, hostage in the prison dungeons.

We do not forget the comrades in Italy who were persecuted with fabricated indictments because they participated in translating initiatives and not only.

Their attitude and dignity shows the way.

We greet the members of the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire and the Revolutionary Struggle and all anarchist hostages of war.

We send our solidarity and respect to all those around the world who fight in any way, inside and out of the walls, against this rotten system.

Finally, we greet all comrades participating in the event and hope that soon we will be able to leave our computers and together with comrades old and new we will tear down the prison walls and walk, with our liberated comrades, on the path of Anarchy.

Spain – A document from anarchist comrade Claudio Lavazza on initiatives of resistance in the Spanish prisons

Teixeiro, 02-7-2013

Dear comrades, I send you the translation of a document dated March-April 2013 on our struggle against torture and abuse in the Spanish prisons, to let you know what is happening here.

In October 2011 a group of prisoners from different State jails organized themselves to start a struggle against torture and abuse in prison. The proposal came out after several months of debate and exchange of ideas among prisoners and groups of support from the outside on the tactics and strategies to be employed in this struggle.

The common actions we agreed on were symbolic hunger strikes on the first day of every month, accompanied by written reports of denunciation to the Congress of Deputies (owing to their political responsibility and complicity), the Ombudsman and the Committees of Geneva and Strasbourg.

The solidarity activity of the groups of support from the outside consisted in establishing a coordination inside-outside the prisons, so as to make information circulate in the most effective possible way. In this regard, a network of solidarity lawyers was created in order to protect the comrades on struggle from the reprisals of the prison institution.

The main goal of this struggle was to denounce the situation within the prison walls with a struggle carried out jointly by prisoners and groups that support comrades from outside, and to send a message to public opinion, that prisons are symbols of mistreatment in its totality and that torture is not only physical but also psychological. Ghosting, isolation, FIES regime, life sentences, lack of medical assistance, administration of drugs that are being experimented with, censorship on verbal and written communication, mistreatment of family members, the blackmail perpetrated in therapeutic sessions (where the prisoner is forced to act as a screw), the blackmail of leave permits, etc.

After a year and a half of symbolic struggle, the campaign continues in spite of the fact that the number of prisoners on struggle has not increased (they are between 40 and 60 scattered in 20 prisons). However a form of permanent resistance has strengthened inside the jails and so has a reason for struggling outside, with repeated denunciations, meetings, gatherings, demos, publications, sending of faxes to the prisons where episodes of torture occur. In this way the silence and isolation that the institutions are trying to impose on our reality has been broken.

During this period some prisoners went on hunger strike on a weekly basis, refused to go to the exercise yard and in some cases continued the hunger strike for 15, 40 and even 80 days. Petitions in support to the campaign were made in several prisons and then sent to the Congress of Deputies, which as expected answered by arguing that 'there exists no torture in the Spanish State and therefore the claims are unfounded!'

In spite of the fact that there have been no big initiatives inside or outside, it is a long and constant struggle, in permanent conflict with the prison system. Prison is the bitterest instrument with which the system tries to impose its regime of repression and dominion against those who don't adapt to imposed rules and discipline. Its existence is linked to that of the State.

We all, prisoners and anyone on the loose, live in a Prison-State system that strikes us. Support and solidarity with prisoners should be a common practice for all those who struggle for freedom and consider themselves anarchists.

Prison is torture

Postal addresses of the 5 anarchists arrested in Barcelona

On May 15, 2013 a major crackdown was launched by the Mossos D'Squadra [Catalan police] which was directed from the National Audience Court in Madrid [high prosecution panel], in which five anarchists were arrested in various parts of Catalonia. A media-orientated coup to coincide with the second anniversary of the 15-M popular protests, a mediatic lynching, where these libertarians still remain in pretrial custody. Details of the case and solidarity initiatives can be found on the support blog to the five of Barcelona. In this post we provide the addresses where letters can be sent to the companerxs.

The current status of the 5 anarchist prisoners at July 31 is dispersion to two Spanish provinces (Avila and Madrid) and 5 different prisons under the FIES3 penitentiary regime. The state lifted the isolation which the companerxs were under, but the state continues with the other FIES restrictions they apply.

You can send letters to all of them at the following addresses listed below. Note that the communications are being monitored so we propose maximum prudence as always in the contents of the letters themselves.

Trento, Italy – 'Are We Men or Corporals?'

Translator's note: this is the title of a very famous Italian film released in 1955 and starring renowned comedian Totò de Curtis*

We receive and transmit the text of a leaflet distributed on July 17 in Trento during a small spontaneous demo in solidarity with Kamilla, José and Leo, who are currently under house arrest and accused of having attacked five job agencies.

Are We Men or Corporals?

'Corporals' [in Italian the word also indicates 'recruiters of day labourers', TN] are those particularly hideous men who recruit day labourers in piazzas and drive them to yards or fields, where they exploit them and retain a portion of their (miserable) wages as a sort of payoff.

The buying and selling of labour force represents the most horrible slave-aspect of economy.

Since 1998, thanks to the 'Treu legislative package' [Treu is an infamous former ministry of labour and social policy, TN] introduced by the Prodi government with the endorsement of the unions, the system of directly hiring labourers for very low wages has been legalized. This led to the spreading of job agencies in Italy, which are the effects and at the same time the causes of work conditions increasingly precarious and under constant attack. If you don't adjust, if you are not perfectly 'functional' to the needs of the boss, at the end of a day, a week or a month your job contract won't be renewed and another person, more submissive (or simply more desperate), will be hired instead of you. No strike, no chance to go back to your country for a few days if you are a migrant, no chance to make claims. Only: 'Yes, boss.' A dream for capitalists (which in fact use it as much as they can), a nightmare for the poor, who become subjected to fierce competition. Your life is constantly subjected to a telephone call from the job agency. Are you unhappy with this? Come forward another one.

In the night between July 14 and July 15 three anarchists are arrested (and then put under house arrest) in Trento, as they are accused of having attacked the windows of five job agencies.

We are not interested in knowing whether or not they did it.

But we know that job agencies have made the curse of wage labour even more damned.

We know that these agencies are increasingly hated.

We know that to attack them is the minimum that can be done.

We know that Kamilla, José and Leo are our comrades, fighting and generous comrades.

Some will say that you don't get anything out of illegal actions. On the contrary we think that by respecting the law (which the State and its bosses themselves break as much as this suits them) we ended up with our heads in the toilet, forced to ask for permission if we want to take the head out of the toilet in order to breathe.

There will be no change until the exploiters and their servants don't start feeling threatened.

Instead of looking through the windows of one's submission someone started smashing them.

As far as we are concerned, we want all the windows of exploitation to be smashed to pieces.

Free Kamilla, José and Leo!

Freedom for all!

Greece: Statement by CCF about being charged with 250 attacks

This statement was read in the 4th trial of CCF (250 attacks)

Before I speak my mind about the legal objections raised from the side of the lawyers, I want to make something clear. In this trial, there are four different sides. The side of the judges, the lawyers' side, the side of the accused, who are innocent and our own side, the side of those who took responsibility for our action in the network of the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire.

From the part of the lawyers there was a refined positioning in relation to the submission of objections to the court in previous sessions. The lawyers, among whom is also our personal friend Franciscos Ragkousis, speaking in the language of the law, not only highlighted the contradictions of the trial but they also showed its hypocrisy.

We're talking about a show that does not even keep up the pretenses of its own democratic scenario. But this farce called a trial, leaves us completely indifferent. Often our attorneys appointed by the court, reach a dead end. As they say themselves, the hostile and absolute way in which we face this trial, blocks them and cancels pieces of legal defense. It cancels the possible presumption of innocence, the pleas and defense lines as well as the legal benefit of any extenuations.

To be accurate, your laws are trash for us. Our view on justice is written on the demolition of the courts of Thessaloniki, on the blasting of the façade of Athens' Court, on the homes of judges, that we burned ... Nothing has changed just because some of us were captured. The captivity in prison did not reduce our decision to fight against laws and institutions, not even one inch.

Then one could reasonably wonder why we appear at trial. The answer is simple. When we were free/wanted our attacks were the way we expressed ourselves and now as we remain captured, our word, even in the court of the enemy, breaks the silence. Silence is not acceptable for an anarchist urban guerrilla.

This does not mean that we will resort to the legal corpses of words in order to talk about ourselves. Reference was made to the jurisdiction of the Court. For us, the court lacks jurisdiction. We do not recognize any white-collar as our natural judge. Only we and our conscience can judge our actions. Nobody else. There was also a plea for the poor composition of judges. But for us, there are no good and bad judges, nor righteous and unrighteous. There are simply judges, officials of the enemy in different shades whose names are targets of the anarchist network of CCF, without exceptions.

The issue of the Joint Statutory and the presence of jurors, was also mentioned. We make clear here that we are anarcho-individualists and nihilists and that we have no appreciation nor respect for the "poor people." Even more, for law-abiding citizens who sit on the benches of jurors. These "poor" people, who are today humiliated and miserable, are the same who worship their bosses and have the same values with them, money and power. They are the people who always whimper but never revolt, questioning but always believing in young leaders/saviors, who always yell but never act. It is high time we break away from dusty revolutionary ideologies – no sheep was saved bleating. Against sheep and shepherds, we are wolves.

As far as the definition of "political crime" is concerned, we don't seek an evaluation for our actions within the laws and the articles of the penal code. Our actions are defined by ourselves with the way we intervene into the normal course of history in order to derail it. Only through violent derailment of history, is a person able to come across the peaks of his thoughts and actions. We place ourselves far away from the so-called unselfish separation between political and criminal. These terms belong to Power and we don't use them. There is just the responsibility of saying "this is me and I will continue to wage war by all means necessary". Theory and action are one. This is the theory of the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire. The unity of theory and action, for the destruction of the system. As for the unselfishness of the motives of our actions, this just a romantic abstraction, unable to measure up with real life. Anarchy is our egoistic demand to ourselves, to take life in our own hands. To define our existence. To hit what is ugly. More than anything it is an existential bet and not a scheme for social salvation. So we are not unselfish and neither do we act in the name of the pitiful people. We are egoist anarchists and we don't accept extenuations. We have already chosen the weight of our choices and we are not going to lighten our decisions.

As far as the potential risk of human life is concerned, we have said these things before in other trials. The choices of each one of us, define their life. There are options that are hostile and their exponents are targets for us. The acts and thoughts of an anarchist urban guerrilla aim to multiply the risk to the life of the enemies of anarchy and of state officials. It is clear that the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire contributed to the proliferation of this risk and we will continue to do so.

For all these reasons and countless more, do not bother to answer the objections because we are indifferent to them. We reject the hypocrisy of a democratic dialogue and choose to keep our words armed, as our weapons. Always on the opposite side, always on the attack.

Chile: Letter from the expenitentiary to the comrades of the world

Kompas of the World,

Sisters and brothers, for a long time the ruling reality has become stronger in every corner of our lives, everything in the rebellion remains in a course of low intensity, the "idea" demands us, every day not to forget the dreams of the liberators, of the bottled rage of years of social injustice. From my cell I see that the political games make up reality, that the prison guards remain immune, that the rebel wills continue going half-way in the streets. Sisters and brothers, this is not a solution to the human slump, rather I want to express what I feel in every act of uproar and of little direct action, I remain kidnapped by a police system and I have the urgency of going on because without you we prisoners would be alone, every bombing is a call to the system to not abuse the captives, a robbery of the rich is a breakdown of the established order.

You are the idea, you are my freedom and the freedom of all

Letters from Marcelo Villarroel and Juan Aliste for June 11th, day of international solidarity with long-term anarchist prisoners

Santiago: Compas, in response to the event held in conjunction with the La Hiedra Library and ourselves (Autonomous Library Sante Geronimo Caserio), we spread the text written by compañeros inside prison for the event that happened on June 11, which is titled "Never Surrender," with which we want bring to light the theme of long prison terms... Without more, lets get to the words of the compas.

Never Surrender

In relation to the International Day about prisoners with long prison sentences.

From the high security prison of Santiago Chile (CAS) I want to greet with all subversive love and libertarian complicity everyone and every prisoner who finds themselves behind bars throughout the world for fighting against the empire of devastation, the ancient order of capital, for human and animal liberation and doing long sentences, those who are losing the best hours of their lives behind bars, charges, sensory limitations, oppressive structures and jail machinations in unending Judicial Farces.

In this instance, this event was born from the direct solidarity with Marie Mason and Eric McDavid, anarchist compañerxs incarcerated inside the USA, and why June 11? Because this day began a Day of Solidarity with the anarchist Jeff "Free" Luers, accused of various acts who was finally released in 2009.

Without a doubt with Marie and Eric in prison due to radical ecologist and anarchist expressions, the power of domination hopes to curb the capacity to actualize the ascent of antagonistic struggle in the gullet of domination.

Well now, these companionerxs are not the first or the only, nor the last in having to face the judicial normalcy of capital that gives years of sentences as though Rebels and those in Insurrection could possibly live more than 200 years... Equally in this part of the planet the autonomous Tradition of Solidarity organized with subversive prisoners is sifting, oscillating, recently rebuilding itself. Perhaps the most solid trail was constituted by the collective of political prisoners called Camina Libre of which I was proudly a part of, from its formation in 1996 until its self dissolution in 2004. I also remember a decade ago the brief functioning of the Anarchist Black Cross of Santiago, which disappeared due to a fault in projectuality and because, basically, those that gave life to said project now live a life of convenience and therefore the act of organizing oneself was only a temporary effort not a real and true commitment with the prisoners of the Social War.

In this way, for the last 17 years I have seen different networks of support, coordinated from freedom, meeting in freedom, groups with different levels of commitment and various assemblies which have disappeared and the direct solidarity with prisoners who struggle have remained in their immediate environment, many times facing highly complex situations in complete helplessness, even more so if they come from proletarian homes, not bourgeois families capable of spending thousands on judicial defense or stays in prison as has already happened.

I have always thought that I can not be complacent at the time of existential accounts about what happens in prison and in the same manner I distance myself from those that use this experience to transform themselves into opinion-o-logues of the Social War talking comfortably, lightly, and conveniently at events, radios, or publications while many of us leave our bones in the stifling routine of prison.

Those who have gone to prison in the last 8 years have not been few. In Santiago 1, in the Maximum Security Section, in the High Security Prison, in SEAS-COF... Temporary steps that through oral testimonies have marked forever their ways of understanding and seeing the struggle to the point that many of them have disappeared by completely repeating the internal and continual cycle of forgetting, of false conspiracy, of excuse and constant fear... Therefore that unanswered question that I asked myself in the 902 s comes into my head: How to construct a lasting space capable of facing Revolutionary Solidarity, the totality of prison existence as an extension of the fight against the State and Capital?

The defiance is daily and the tension permanent, there are not breaths nor rest for those of us that live behind bars. The level of the jailer's impunity seems endless: they punish you for whatever they want; destroy your belongings; don't let you enter your visit you have been waiting for for so long; they transfer you or punish you with false arguments; don't let you see your lawyer; they throw out the food or rip up the clothing that with strength and care your loved ones have brought you; they eternally harass you; they invent Process-Farces to continually leave you in prison.... Always with the same logic: that of destroying your individual antagonistic integrity, a Rebellion indomitable to the point that they cannot kill it.

Because the reality of the Chilean prison society is highly repressive and normalized from the punishment of prisoners to the repression of their family members and loved ones, and includes the destruction of the most essential bonds. It is not casual that one of the most horrendous massacres of the Global Prison system happened in Chile on December 8, 2010, with the horrible deaths of 81 social prisoners burned alive inside of tower 5 of the San Miguel Prison. Today that terrible event survives in the memory of the families and the Rebels and those in Insurrection with memories of Resistance and Subversion now that no one else remembers. It is the most cruel characterization of an indolent society that makes natural the normalizing approval of daily life in which no one does anything.

The prisons are human landfills, drains where it is common to meet social prisoners with incredibly high sentences for only robbery. I am not talking of homicides, sexual aggressors, narco-traffickers... I am talking of those that strike against private property and must pay extremely high sentences. Submitted to total and intermediate abandonment, in the high or maximum security sections, there is always a place for those of us who rebel against the existent, moving to form a part of this contingent of human beings that, as masters of our own lives, must resist for decades the prison's unhealthy routine of extermination.

The transformation of autonomous practices have happily distanced me from politics, therefore I claim libertarian prisoner because it is from this way of seeing and understanding life that I have been able to distance myself as well from those practices of self-complacency which multiply Ghettos, Shows, Trials, and assertions based in the morality of good and bad..."Politics is disgusting and rots everything that it penetrates"... In reality transgressive and subversive action does not require the political support of anyone because it becomes urgent to the extent that there are thousands of motives to take the offensive without waiting for "the people" or "the masses"... From the right or the left politics is the same shit... In affinity, in desires and necessities, in revolt, in the individual decision to liberate yourself there is not shitty political valor, in the prisons, in the poorest poblaciones, in the misery of the street, amongst the marginalized, make or talk about politics and you sentence yourself to false isolation.

Defiance in the face of the prison society is potent in making visible the machinery of death that amounts to the existence of this human meat grinder. Take note of the millionaire's resources invested in the protection of private property, socialize the experiences of Resistance, empathize with the multiple and daily resistances, inform yourself about the networks of executioner-torturers who hide themselves behind their unions "Public Functionaries"... We articulate ourselves from that which unties us, simplify the language to put our grain of sand in this titanic fight to abolish prisons, destroying the State and Capital... there are thousands of challenges for subversives, revolutionaries, and dignified social prisoners in order to avoid paying many years behind bars, losing in this way the best days of their lives...

From affinity, promoting the extension of the anti-prison struggle, calling to those who have lived in prison to lose the fear of acting; Greeting the diverse initiatives made by those who take action, shredding theory... To those in solidarity that never cease to walk with us, to those who today find themselves with heart to support in every capacity the anti-capitalist task.

-In memory of Harold Thompson, anarchist prisoner who died in prison in the USA.

-In memory of Cristian Ibaceta, social prisoner from Argentina murdered by being stabbed 24 times in 2012 in unit number 12 of Newken, which is attributed to the obscure maneuvering of the provincial police, to whom he was an ardent enemy.

-In memory of Horst Fantazzini, anarchist robber who died in prison in Italy in December 2001.

-To every prisoner in the world that fight against Power, Authority, the State, and Capital.

-For anti-capitalist, autonomous and libertarian internationalism.

-While misery exists there will be rebellion!!

in the darkness as an instinct

in the light as a feline

>>Letter from Juan Aliste Vega for June 11th day of solidarity

June 2013 High Security Prison (CAS)

Memory is the ammunition with which the weapon of solidarity is loaded, we are not spectators of our lives, we decide them.

From prison, solidarity rhymes with rebellion, this not being the only condition-reason to put into practice a courage inherent to the defiance of revolution.

Equal Solidarity before a voracious capitalism.

Solidarity of class in the social war.

Active Solidarity with those that fight.

To make words, not only the joining of letters, but also a constant permanence which in practice becomes resistance-breaking with the mediocrity of welfare-ism or the incompleteness of the protest. An action alone or with others permits us to recognize ourselves in libertarian complicity, where lives flow with concrete intentionality of emancipation. With the idea of a different world in which the oxygen of solidarity generates permanent subversion.

The struggle has a continual history and is not temporary, in the same way solidarity can not be circumstantial, it is Oxygen! Which vitalizes the resistance, the struggle and our lives willing to continue combating misery and capitalism.

A fraternal embrace to all those who make it possible to continue maintaining a revolutionary spirit, no matter condition or place.

Memory is the ammunition with which the weapon of solidarity is loaded!

Solidarity and struggle with all the prisoners of the Social War!

While misery exists there will be rebellion!

Juan Aliste Vega

Subversive prisoner – hostage of the Chilean State of Capital

Switzerland : Marco Camenisch and revolutionary prisoner Andrea Stauffacher on hunger strike in solidarity with Georges Ibrahim Abdallah

'I won't repent or compromise, I'll continue to resist!'

Georges Ibrahim Abdallah

We join the appeal for two international days in solidarity with Georges Ibrahim Abdallah on 5th and 6th July 2013, along with ten political prisoners of the organization La Voie Démocratique from Morocco, Kostas Gournas of Revolutionary Struggle and a prisoner of the organization November 17 (both from Greece).

Thomas Meyer-Falk [imprisoned comrade sentenced for political bank robbery in Germany] already sent his declaration of solidarity with these two days of action, while two prisoners of PC p-m from Siano (Italy) will send their declaration of support. We, Marco Camenisch and Andrea Stauffacher, will start a hunger strike from June 30 to July 7.

This is our declaration:

Georges Ibrahim Abdallah's case is exemplary like that of many revolutionary prisoners who have remained coherent for years and years and for this reason they are not being released in spite of the fact that they finished to serve their sentence. Georges was arrested in 1984 in Lyon (France) as a Lebanese militant of the Lebanese Revolutionary Armed Fraction, and sentenced to life in prison in 1987. He should have been released 14 years ago but his liberation was hampered by French courts because of the growing pressure exercised by the USA and Israel. Here is a quotation from a secret document: 'On his return to his country he would be celebrated as a hero, also by several movements engaged in revolutionary struggle. He can't be allowed to be back to the battlefield.'

A battlefield where imperialist forces are being inflicted heavy defeats. Defeats in Iraq and Afghanistan led the USA to change their strategy of war. Away from the TV screen, military intervention in open field and the rearmament of the wars of the substitutes – even including the Talibans and Al-Quaida – are being adopted. Military bases in Europe, like those in Sigonella (Italy) and Stuttgart (Germany) are being rearmed. From these bases unmanned drones are being used as death machines, massive surveillance systems are being presented as legitimate means of protection. They talk about violence only in a context of social revolts or revolutionary struggles, define wars as interventions for peace and proclaim State terrorism as a form of protection of democracy.

Georges 'can't be allowed to be back to the battlefield' where a crisis is intensifying and internal social contradictions are moving towards the resistance of social revolts and revolutionary struggles in an explosive and incontrollable way: in Arab countries, London, Athens, Istanbul and Brazil. According to special parole boards, the institute for the execution of sentences 3 and the direction of forensic-psychological clarifications, Marco Camenish shouldn't be allowed to be back to the battlefield either. They say that Marco is intelligent, has an important role in the struggle against capitalism, continues to have a view on the world that promotes delinquency, shows a chronic disposition for violence and cultivate social contacts that legitimize violence. The indispensable factor that would lighten his prison sentence: the treatment of these problematic aspects (his view on the world and violent disposition) through therapy and a clear distancing from his social contacts. How right Georges was when he wrote in March this year: 'Comrades, you must know that when the bourgeois justice system aims at destroying the political identity of a revolutionary prisoner it also aims at hampering the complete critical assessment of his struggle and at criminalizing us.' Their trick consists in denying the attempts of struggle that have been developing in Europe and in the Middle East in the last two decades. Together, comrades, and only together will we win.

With this initiative we aim at contributing to the development of international struggle as a weapon which can create revolutionary relations, continuity and organization and which can put resistances and struggles in relation in a constructive way.

DIRECT ACTION REPORTS

10 August, Volos, Greece: Solidarians intervened in the city of Volos with banners for Spyros Mandylas and Andreas Tsavdaridis, anarchists from Thessaloniki that are both held in pretrial incarceration, accused for the Phoenix Project. Andreas, Spyros: hold strong until freedom. The more sheep will be bleating, the more wolves will be howling.

9 August, Komotini, Greece: Late in the evening, comrades from the anarchist hangout Utopia A.D. put up a banner at the central square of Komotini that reads: "The State is the only terrorist. On July 11th, cops raided the anarchist hangout Nadir (in Thessaloniki). On August 5th, squats in Patras were evicted. Solidarity with the arrested comrades." They also shared out a text in solidarity with anarchists Andreas Tsavdaridis and Spyros Mandylas that were placed on remand in relation to the 'Phoenix Project', with Nadir squat in Thessaloniki that was stormed by the antiterrorist unit, as well as the squats in Patras (Parartima, Maragopouleio, Self-managed Hangout of TEI) that were sealed off by the police.

9 August, Athens, Greece: Comrades performed an intervention of solidarity to the Parartima and Maragopouleio squats and the Self-managed Hangout of TEI in Patras that were stormed by state forces in the early hours of August 5th. During the intervention, banners were placed at the entrance to the archaeological site of Acropolis, disrupting the fake image of a 'respectable' city of Athens and attracting the attention of visitors.

6 August, Bristol, UK: The fascist pub 'County Sports Club' on Colston Street was attacked. 4 windows were smashed each with 2 panes and SMASH FASCISM was painted on the wall. On July 13th the County Sports Club allowed Close Shave to play, a fascist punk band that have played regularly with Screwdriver and on the bill of Rock Against Communism. Their lyrics advocate bringing back the death penalty for immigrants and gays amongst other things.

1 August, Santiago, Chile: On the outskirts of the Juan Gómez Milla campus of the University of Chile (a territory dominated by the fascism in the south), comrades set fire to road barricades and attacking the lackeys of the state when they responded to the disturbance (water-spraying trucks, gas-throwing trucks and police special forces squadrons), however, their surprise was great when the black smoke spread through the skies, among leaflets and molotov cocktails, which for a few minutes gave life to the monotony of the crowds of the living dead. The action is dedicated to eternal love for Marcelo, Juan, Freddy Fuente Villa, Hans Niemeyer, Alberto "Nico" Olivares, José Miguel Sánchez and to each rebel and insubordinate being who is kidnapped in the extension of this land across the world. Kostas Pappas Cell of Faceless Individuals took responsibility (K.Pappas is a comrade who fell in a traffic accident in 2007 in Greece while fleeing from the police).

End of July, Adygeya, Russia: A mobile housing unit at a highway construction site is torched by Conspiracy of Cells of Fire-Russia.

31 July, Hamburg, Germany: Attack of revolutionary solidarity. "The building of the ThyssenKrupp Industrial Solutions AG in Hamburg was attacked. The entrance windows and doors were smashed and around two dozen bottles were thrown at the building to mark it. The street in front of the building was blocked by burning barricades. ThyssenKrupp is one of the biggest companies producing war machines. They deliver to armies all over the world. The attack was in solidarity with the imprisoned comrades Sonja and Sibylle, who took a non-compromising stand against the State and its justice. Sonja is accused of attacks and participation in the "Revolutionäre Zellen"/ Revolutionary Cells (RZ) in the 70s. Sibylle is imprisoned for her non-cooperation with justice. The trial is still going on. Also the attack was dedicated to the June revolt in Turkey. Militant greetings to Istanbul, Ankara, Amed, Eskisehir, ... to all the prosecuted and imprisoned rebels and in remembrance of the killed." Sibylle S. was released on August 6, 2013, after the detention evidently did not change her uncompromising stance of non-cooperation.

28 July, Santiago, Chile: Barricades erected at an intersection and propaganda left in the area in solidarity with Hans Niemeyer, kidnapped by the Chilean state, and to the combative memory of compañero Carlo Giuliani, killed by the guard dogs of the state of Italy, 2001. Without ever forgetting all our dead compañeros and also those who are imprisoned, but never submissive. " ... We break the parameters via fire, we are participants in and accomplices of destruction, we will not tire until destroying the last cage."

26 July, Thessaloniki, Greece: At Friday dawn, July 26th, 6 ATMs were sabotaged in the area of Stavroupoli in Thessaloniki. " ... Strength to the two remanded anarchists from Thessaloniki, who are accused of participation in the project 'Phoenix.' Strength to the anarchists of Nadir squat, who were assaulted in their infrastructure by the petty hooligans of the EKAM antiterrorist force. Strength to anarchist fighters everywhere, who abstain from an anarcho-lifestyle of parties and drug culture. ... "

25 July, Santiago, Chile: A militant march for decriminalization of abortion took place. Chile is one of the countries where abortions are banned in all circumstances. Consequentially, women are jailed for abortions, and others die having back-alley abortions. There were clashes with the security forces and the demonstrators entered a cathedral during mass. Whistling and yelling slogans ("Keep your rosaries off our ovaries", among others) they tried to overwhelm the microphone. They painted some slogans inside the cathedral and flipped wooden pews, even pulling a few out of the church. Slogans painted were "Abortion is the best – I shit on god.", "Mary wanted to have an abortion", "Against the capitalization of our abdomens – Autonomy of the body, and fire to the patriarchy".

20 July, Yevpatoria, Ukraine: An Animal Liberation Front Cell of the Informal Anarchist Federation 'SEALS on Tour' made a daring liberation action. "2 dolphins were set free from Yevpatoria dolphinarium as a result of a special operation with diving equipment. During the night of the full moon on 20/07/2013 we covered 2 km under water and breached the security perimeter: We cut the nets and entered the dolphin containment pools. In the next hour we cut a large part of the perimeter barrier. Dolphins encouraged our efforts with clicks and whistling. Their support filled us with joy and excitement. This has been an unforgettable meeting and encouraging experience for us. Our job done, we left the area of operation. By the way, the prison was equipped with night-vision cameras, but their red eyes were turned on the catwalks and audience seats. Nobody expected our approach from below. As soon as dolphins got wind of freedom and open water, they escaped into the night sea." ALF/FAI – SEALS on tour

19 July, Santiago, Chile: Arson attack against BancoEstado, situated right next to the Justice Centre is claimed in solidarity with Hans Niemeyer, sentenced on 12 July to a 5-year imprisonment for carrying explosive material, and to 300-day imprisonment for the damages inflicted on a bank. The direct action is claimed by Victor Lambros Incendiary Group / FAI-IRF.

18 July, Buenos Aires, Argentina: Anarchist group 'Propaganda and Action' attacked the ITAU Bank with stones located in streets Bolivar & Moreno, in downtown Buenos Aires. Slogans were painted on their windows "Solidarity with the revolt in Brazil".

17 July, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil: In the southern zone of Rio de Janeiro, thousands staged a protest across the street where the state governor Sérgio Cabral Filho lives in luxury. Riots and arrests followed in Leblon, the most affluent district in the city.

15 July, Torun, Poland: Antifascists hung a solidarity banner in the centre of the city for anarchist prisoner Kostas Sakkas in Greece.

14 July, Susa Valley, Italy: An excavator of the company Efedue, involved in the works for the implementation of the TAV railway track, was set on fire along the bank of the Dora Riparia river.

14 July, Santiago, Chile: "At midnight on July 14 we set off to several temples of money, "we howled at the moon," and we walked with our black clothing in front of a police station and almost without hesitation we proceeded to execute our action. We disabled 8 ATMs on La Florida Avenue, including some of a BCI Bank, in solidarity with Hans Niemeyer, sentenced to almost 6 years in prison for the Arms Control Law and damages to property. ... " The action was taken responsibility by Colibrís Eduardo Carouy Free Gang, who also dedicated the action to imprisoned, fugitive and fallen anarchist comrades.

11 July, Thessaloniki, Greece: After a fully operational letterbomb is sent to Dimitris Horianopoulos, (ex-commander of the anti-terrorist division which orchestrated the operation against the CCF), two anarchists are arrested after a large cop operation. As well, the cops raid and search anarchist hangout Steki Nadir and the Thessaloniki campus. At the same time there is an orchestrated media operation with the same journalists-colleagues of the cops. In "Vima" newspaper, specific spaces and a specific comrade is portrayed. Friday afternoon, cops make a pitiful announcement. Heavy charges are attributed with no connection with the confiscated "evidence". There is a charge for "possession of explosives" with no explosives found. As well, in a stupidity delirium, cops include in their charges instigation of an action in a hotel in Jakarta, Indonesia.

5 July, Athens, Greece: Motorcycle demo to the General State Hospital of Nikaia, in Piraeus, where Kostas Sakkas is being detained on hungerstrike.

4 July, Hamburg, Germany: Banner hung, leaflets and posters distributed in solidarity with Kostas Sakkas, who was at that point already an entire month on hungerstrike.

2 July, Porto Alegre, Brazil: Two military vehicles were torched and seven dumpsters were burned.

2 July, Athens, Greece: The Ministry of Culture was attacked. Comrades jumped over the gate, delivered to the flames all vehicles owned by the Ministry in the parking lot and then left together with the rest of the group. An action of solidarity and support of the struggle fought by anarchist K.Sakkas, putting his own body in the frontline, having completed already 1 month on hunger strike, demanding his immediate release. The battle he gives against his political and physical extermination, is a part of the wider resistance against capitalist restructuring and the regime of emergency imposed by the domestic and international dominance in Greece and around the world.

30 June, Jakarta, Indonesia: To show to the unionists that the workers goals are not to be workers anymore, and not for eight-hours, democracy inside the factory, freedom of association or other reformist demands, Anger Unit / ICR-FAI-IRF burnt down a three floor fashion screenprinting clothing warehouse. The group issued "A Contribution for the FAI-IRF", (325.nostate.net/?p=8262), which read in part: "Each of those who read the communiqué must realize that we have a logic and reasoning that would not be possible according to the logic used by the pacifist, social activists and the Leftist and other citizens –including the social anarchists– which does not comprise part of our group. For us, it does not matter and is also not an issue that is important at this time. Each individual has the right to hold opinions and justifications respectively. Each group will have a different analysis of the foundation with the other groups. Every person is entitled to choose their own path for how to get involved, and take personal responsibility. Each individual must find tactics that suit them and select it."

29 June, Athens, Greece: A vehicle of the Public Power Corporation (DEI) was torched in downtown Agrinio in solidarity with Kostas Sakkas. "Strength to our captive brothers and sisters - Rage and consciousness".

29 June, Buenos Aires, Argentina: A patrol car of the Argentine Federal Police in Palermo, was torched in solidarity with the prisoners of the Conspiracy of the Cells of Fire, with greetings to Panagiotis Argirou and strength to Gerasimos Tsakalos; to the prisoners of the repressive state operations against anarchists in Italy; to Nicola Gai and Alfredo Cospito; to anarchist Kostas Sakkas on hunger strike; for complicit greetings to the Anti-civilization Fraction of the Earth Liberation Front, kindred spirits of the Informal Anarchist Federation. The Amigxs de la Tierra / FAI took responsibility.

29 June, Athens, Greece: Demo in solidarity with hungerstriking comrade K.Sakkas.

26 June, Jakarta, Indonesia: As the third part of the Phoenix Project, Anger Unit / ICR-FAI-IRF burnt down the third floor of prestigious former Sheraton Hotel, 'The Media Hotel and Tower'. Extract from the claim: "Our fire is to respond to the call from our brothers in Greece in the Phoenix project and as a gesture of solidarity to K. Sakkas, anarchist in hunger strike action to reach his freedom. ... Bring far our revolutionary greetings to the members of Conspiracy of Cells of Fire; Imprisoned Members Cell, to the 4 anarchists who were arrested in Kozani –we never forget you, for Cospito and Gai, to Carla, Ivan, Juan, Marcelo and Freddy, and to Henry and always to the anarchists prisoners in Greece and Italy, and to other cells of FAI – IRF around the world."

Finally, in brief...

Turkey- In the early hours of July 16th, 2013 police raided 100 different places in Istanbul regarding the recent social revolt...

Greece- Kostas Sakkas, anarchist fighter on hungerstrike is free on a 30,000 euro bail which is already paid and the comrade is no longer detained before trial as of 11 July, but has heavy legal restrictions... Two other anarchists walked out of Korydallos prison under restrictive orders: Christoforos Kortesis and Vaggelis Stathopoulos, who were both convicted in the Revolutionary Struggle case trial...

UK- Squatters warm up a little this month after physical resistance to two squat evictions in Cardiff & Brixton, and an ex-police station got squatted in Cardiff too..
